Comments:

- Fire department received notification of a grant award in the of $74,000.00 for the purchase of new personal protective equipment. Approximately (17) sets of structural firefighting will be able to be purchased, offsetting the capital budget for 3.5 years.
- Department instructors completed a 16-hour training program to be able to deliver mandatory personal escape system training to members in-house while on-duty at the fire station.
- Work continues on the development of the training simulators to the rear of the fire station. The simulators will be painted to match the public safety storage building when the weather allows.
- New Department Members: (2) Part-Time EMT's
